WHO WE ARE

Madanyat is a Lebanese Non-Governmental Organization, registered in March 2019, under the number 2389, aiming to respond effectively to the social change occurring in the country, believing that a diversity of voices will lead to a fairer, and more inclusive and democratic society.

Madanyat has a stable structure with involved board members, a President, Nada Saleh Anid/expert in gender equality issues, a Secretary, Georges Nehmé/lawyer, and a Treasurer, Martine Tchopourian/financial expert, periodically updated on the advancement of the programs, and a young and dedicated team with specific job descriptions.

Madanyat doesn't have a membership system, but relies on a wide network formed by beneficiaries and focal points from all Lebanese regions.

WHAT ARE OUR VALUES

We believe in the importance of fair and effective participation of women and youth in public life and policy making, gender equality & justice, women and youth empowerment and inclusiveness. These values are valid throughout the organisation's recruitment process of its team, beneficiaries' consultation and implementation of its projects.

MISSION & OBJECTIVES

Madanyat's mission is to

Actively contribute to reaching gender equality in all designated and elected bodies;

Mobilize and unite women, youth and men from around the country willing to work for political, economic, cultural and social justice for all;

Advocate a new vision where politics is accessible to women and youth by working with all political parties, promoting electoral and other reforms and raising awareness about the impact of women's under-representation;

Spread art and culture as a vector of social cohesion, diversity and promoting human rights.

Madanyat's main objectives are

- Gender Equality;
- Political and Social Justice;
- Women Empowerment;
- Art and Culture.

NETWORKS

Madanyat is member of several networks

Women in Parliament committee, Anna Lindh network and steering committee for gender issues, Euro-Mediterranean Women's Foundation, UNDP Electoral Working Group, and the Feminist Platform led by UN women.

Madanyat has implemented projects in partnership with different NGOs: ONDES, Maharat, Borderless and has strong ties with international organizations and other NGOs working for democracy, gender equality and good governance.

BENEFICIARIES

Number of Beneficiaries

Since 2019 till today, Madanyat has worked with a total of 1500 direct beneficiaries, 2168298 indirect beneficiaries and 8913629 through Social Media outreach from different areas. Beneficiaries were outreached by Madanyat's field officers and/or partners, social media announcements and by referrals.

We commit to the principles of Inclusivity

Madanyat ensures equal participation of all groups and communities. We bring together women, youth and men from all around the country from different backgrounds willing to work for political, economic, cultural and social justice for all.

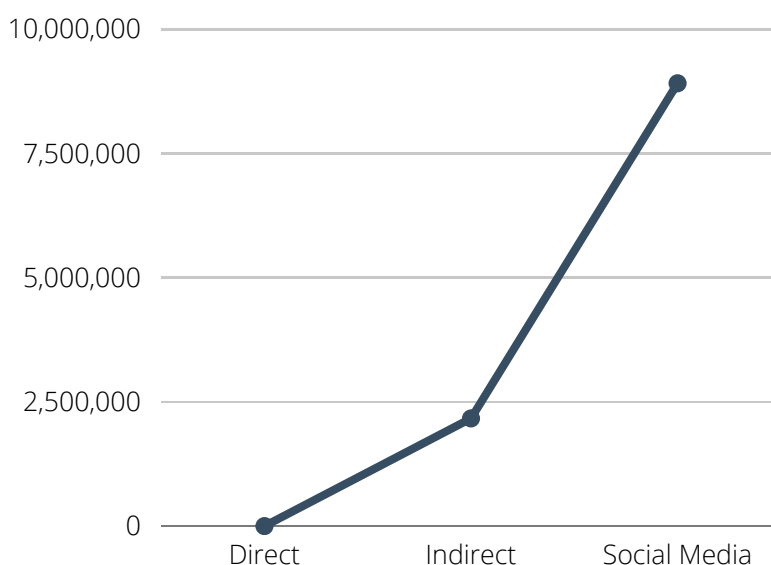

Madanyat's ensures an inclusive environment during the implementation of its projects.

We actively contribute to reaching gender equality in all designated and elected bodies to ensure equal representation. Our organization designs and implements in collaboration with its partners' awareness campaigns, focus group discussions and open dialogues to reach a broad audience aware of the importance of women's role in the Lebanese political and social life. Our work also includes conducting quantitative and qualitative research to add to the literature recent data related to Lebanese perspective of women participation in politics.

SOME OF OUR KEY ACHIEVEMENTS

Youth Vote

80% of the youth enhanced their knowledge in the Lebanese electoral law, gender equality in politics and accountability due to the training sessions with 1,074,884 social media users were reached through organic and paid media.

Me Too /Sawtna

In the first project recommendations report was launched with details on how to fight VAWP. In the second report, multiple videos featured key figures in politics to highlight their experiences in violence against women in politics.

These projects aimed to raise awareness on Violence Against Women in Politics and on its detrimental effects at all levels of the electoral process, while contributing to institutional capacity building of Supervisory Committee for Elections.

Revive

The women designed and led a need assessment for their areas and implemented 6 initiatives based on these needs while working with multiple stakeholders from municipalities and NGOs. Developed two women committees in vulnerable areas in Mount Lebanon: trained and coached them to be active in their communities. Created a needs assessment through participatory methods and supported the women in implementing their initiatives.

SOME OF OUR KEY ACHIEVEMENTS

Moubadirat/ We Go Public

30 videos launched online to highlight the women's projects.

30 projects to support women and their initiatives through training sessions for 30 women to coach them on how to move forward with their initiatives and how to transform them into policies if possible.

Youth Matters

70% of the youth enhanced their knowledge in politics and the role of the Lebanese women in this matter, in addition to the importance of voting and policymaking. 5 dissemination events were implemented

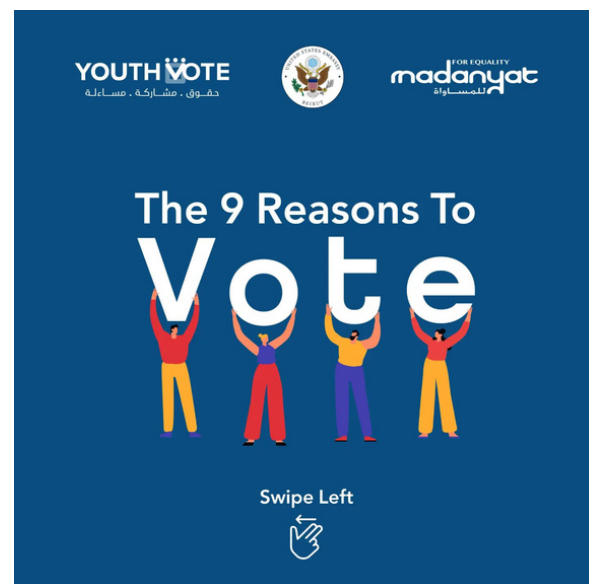

Strengthened the political and legislative knowledge of 20 youth in Lebanon through training sessions, along with supporting the youth facilitating dissemination events to reach a broader audience.

Women In Politics: Delving into women empowerment, perceptions and attitudes

Engaged women experts in politics in addition to youth and other Lebanese groups in the research and reached a sample of 1000 Lebanese persons. Developed qualitative and quantitative research to understand the perspective of Lebanese people and their attitudes of women in politics. Produced a full report of the results along with animated videos for social media.

La Tribune

Increased the knowledge of 40 youth on issues related to women's rights in Lebanon and with enhanced skills of public speaking and debating.
